affected performance beyond what would be reasonably expected or as described below.

The Fund did not borrow money during the year except for immaterial short-term cash overdrafts.

Recent Developments

The aggressive tightening of monetary policy around the world marks a complete turnaround from central bank policies of a year ago. Policies put in place to support economies during the pandemic have turned out to be major contributors to high inflation. The year-over-year inflation numbers in North America and elsewhere are the highest in decades and central banks are moving to slow it down through interest rate hikes and a reversal of quantitative easing (QE).

QE involves the central banks buying their own country's government bonds to push down yields and put money directly into people's hands. QE is not a new approach to monetary policy but its scale reached records during the pandemic. It is not clear what will happen as central banks stop reinvesting maturing bonds and possibly start selling bonds they hold.

In this environment of high inflation, rising interest rates, and reduced liquidity, financial assets have not performed well. The big question is how much further the monetary and fiscal authorities have to go to get inflation under control. The risk of an economic recession continues to become more likely. This will be negative for unemployment and credit markets.

The Fund is being managed increasingly conservatively. This helps to preserve capital in a market decline and makes it easier to take advantage of future investment opportunities.

During the year, the Fund focused on improving liquidity and only adding credit risk when compensated. The Fund continued to purchase high quality liquid securities as interest rate risk and credit risk remained elevated during the year, however added credit on opportunity. The Fund holds a large position in United States Treasury bonds (19.7%). The Fund participated in new issues of Pacific Life Global Funding II FRN Feb 1, 2027, Scotia Capital NHA MBS FRN (98100013) Jun 1, 2027 as well as a 5 year B issue of LATAM Airlines at an all in yield of 15% and SNC's three year at an all in yield of 7%. The Fund continues to keep duration short of the index at 2.2 years, only taking on duration when it believes it's being compensated for the risk. The Fund remains conservatively positioned and its higher quality holdings will allow it to take advantage of future market opportunities.

There have been no changes to the Manager or Portfolio Manager, or change of control of the Manager, or of the Fund.

There have been no actual or planned reorganizations, mergers or similar transactions involving the Fund.

There were no changes to the membership of the Fund's Independent Review Committee ("IRC").

The Manager receives a management fee for these services. The fee is calculated based on a percentage of the net asset value of the Fund as disclosed in the simplified prospectus.

The Fund paid USD $103,427 (including HST) in management fees to the Manager for the year ended December 31, 2022 (December 31, 2021 - USD $42,535).

1 The information is derived from the Fund's audited annual financial statements. All per unit figures presented are referenced to net assets determined in accordance to IFRS.

2 Net assets and distributions are based on the actual numbers of units outstanding at the relevant time. The increase (decrease) from operations is based on the weighted average number of units outstanding over the financial period. This table is not intended to be a reconciliation of beginning to ending net assets per unit.

3 Distributions were paid in cash or reinvested in additional units, or both.

4 This information is provided at the end of the period shown.

5 The management expense ratio is based on the total expenses of the period ended and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset values during the period.

6 The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio manager manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund. The portfolio turnover rate is calculated based on the lesser of purchases or sales of securities divided by the weighted average market value of portfolio securities, excluding short term securities.

7 The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.
