Recent Developments

The U.S. Federal Reserve’s (“the Fed”) about-face on interest rates in the fourth quarter fueled a rally in almost every asset class, from speculative technology shares to junk bonds. The Treasury market posted its first annual gain since 2020 as

Lysander-Canso Floating Rate ActivETF

Annual Management Report of Fund Performance as at December 31, 2023 slowing inflation bolstered views that the Fed's campaign of interest rate increases was seemingly over. The Fed acknowledged that economic activity had slowed, and job gains moderated. The Fed also prepared a potential path towards rate cuts.

The market may have gotten ahead of itself as investors clamored to invest cash before year end. The market is forecasting six quarter-point rate cuts throughout 2024. Investors have also been puzzled by the failure of a widely anticipated recession to materialize.

The Bank of Canada is concerned that inflationary pressures are broad-based. Economic growth stalled during the middle quarters of 2023 as higher interest rates were restraining consumer spending. The labour market is easing, and job creation has slowed. Wages are still rising at an elevated rate despite a modest increase in the unemployment rate.

During the year, the Fund focused on maintaining its position in liquid floating rate securities. The Fund established weights in high-quality, short-term floating corporates including three year floating rate issues of Bank of Montreal, Honda Canada Finance, MetLife Global Funding and TransCanada Pipelines at a spreads of Corra +60, +88, +106, and +140 respectively. As at year end, the Fund continues to be very high quality and liquid with 93% in issues rated A or higher. With 96.3% of the Fund in floating rate issues, duration remains low at 0.2 years with a yield to maturity of 5.5%.

There have been no changes to the Manager or Portfolio Manager, or change of control of the Manager, or of the Fund. There have been no actual or planned reorganizations, mergers or similar transactions involving the Fund.

There were no changes to the membership of the Fund's Independent Review Committee ("IRC").

Notes

* The Fund commenced operations on August 26, 2022.

1 The information is derived from the Fund's audited annual financial statements. All per unit figures presented are referenced to net assets determined in accordance to IFRS.

2 Net assets and distributions are based on the actual numbers of units outstanding at the relevant time. The increase (decrease) from operations is based on the weighted average number of units outstanding over the financial period. This table is not intended to be a reconciliation of beginning to ending net assets per unit.

3 Distributions were paid in cash.

4 This information is provided at the end of the period shown.

5 The management expense ratio is based on the total expenses of the period ended and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset values during the period.

6 The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio manager manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund. The portfolio turnover rate is calculated based on the lesser of purchases or sales of securities divided by the weighted average market value of portfolio securities, excluding short term securities.

7 The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.
