loss for the economy. Corporate profits are reasonable, and the artificial intelligence boom is driving gains for investors. Unlike the U.S. Federal Reserve (“Fed”), the European Central Bank and the Bank of Canada (“BoC”) cut interest rates during the period.

The Fed kept their federal funds rate unchanged during the June meeting to remain between 5.25% to 5.5%. The Fed acknowledged that economic activity has been expanding solidly and job gains were strong. The unemployment rate is low and while inflation has eased over the past year, it remains above target.

The BoC reduced its benchmark interest rate to 4.75%, the first decrease in over four years. The central bank identified slower economic growth and slower pace of employment while making the decision. Corporate credit spreads were largely unchanged in the period and sit tighter than where they began at the beginning of the period..

During the period, the Fund focused on maintaining its position in short-dated, liquid securities. The Fund established weights in high-quality, short-term corporates including Senior Unsecured notes of BNS, RBC and TD, as well as notes of Enbridge Gas and Hydro One. As of June 30, 2024, the positioning of the Fund continues to be high quality and liquid with over 70% in AAA/AA rated issues and 55% in Government of Canada bonds. At the end of the period, the Fund’s duration was 0.7 years with a yield to maturity of 4.6%.

There have been no changes to the Manager or Portfolio Manager, or change of control of the Manager, or of the Fund. There have been no actual or planned reorganizations, mergers or similar transactions involving the Fund.

There were no changes to the membership of the Fund’s Independent Review Committee (“IRC”).

Notes

* The Fund commenced operations on August 26, 2022.

1 The information is derived from the Fund's unaudited semi-annual and/or audited annual financial statements. All per unit figures presented are referenced to net assets determined in accordance to IFRS.

2 Net assets and distributions are based on the actual numbers of units outstanding at the relevant time. The increase (decrease) from operations is based on the weighted average number of units outstanding over the financial period. This table is not intended to be a reconciliation of beginning to ending net assets per unit.

3 Distributions were paid in cash.

4 This information is provided at the end of the period shown.

5 The management expense ratio is based on the total expenses of the period ended and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset values during the period.

6 The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio manager manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund. The portfolio turnover rate is calculated based on the lesser of purchases or sales of securities divided by the weighted average market value of portfolio securities, excluding short term securities.

7 The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.
